

The Christmas rush is on at the Vernon postoffice. A line of small parcels post window Tuesday noon and remained throughout the afternoon. At times, six or eight people were waiting for a chance to mail packages. Thoughtful people are mailing their Christmas packages early, a postal employee asserted. The Government has already taken precautions to handle the tremendous flood of Christmas parcels post and the usual instructions of "see that your gifts are properly packed," "wrap all packages securely," "insure valuable," etc., are being handled out.

Vernon fans have already started playing the Vernon-Plainview football game for the championship of class A of district 1 of the Interscholastic League, despite the fact that the warriors of the gridiron do not clash until November 11 at Fair Park. The names of a number of the Plainview stars have been ascertained by the Vernon fans. In the drug stores, on the street corners, in the homes, the cafes, offices, stores and in fact, everywhere, you'll find some one discussing the relative merits of the two teams or ready to bet you the post office against the city hall that Vernon will carry off all of the honors in the battle.

One of Vernon's promising young attorneys experiences a most embarrassing moment in the district court room Tuesday afternoon. The jury had just returned its verdict acquitting his client, a negro woman, of the charge of murder. The calm, which prevailed during the reading of the verdict, was suddenly broken by the exultant negro who raced across the court room and threw her arms around the young attorney's neck, thanking him for gaining her liberation from the felony charge. The defendant's other attorney hastened from the court room to make certain that the negro did not duplicate her emotional act. It may have been all right for men to hug and kiss men in France, but Texas is still in doubt about the expressions of emotion and gratitude, especially those from the black race.

Proof that a good hearty laugh can remedy makes and even possibly avoid serious complications was well exemplified by an incident in a local cafe the other afternoon. A waitress had returned to the kitchen window and instructed the head cook to put some cream gravy on a piece of steak. Misunderstanding the order, the cook plumped his dipper into a pan of brown gravy. The waitress, seeing the error, removed the dish just as the kitchen foreman lifted the dipper. The gravy splashed against the waitress. Both laughed and the expected kitchen drama was not enacted.

Traffic was at a standstill for several minutes at the Vernon post office Tuesday afternoon when two women of rather large proportions selected the small lobby between the two doors as an ideal place to exchange a bit of gossip about relatives, friends and neighbors. One of the women grabbed the handle of the outer door and stood with her back against the main entrance to the building while her friend took a similar position in front of the inner door. Several men wishing to leave the building did not have the nerve to interfere. The lobby was crowded with people, as the afternoon mail had just been placed in the boxes. After several minutes of delay, a woman carrying several bundles gave the inner door a jerk and brushed between the friends. The pair parted with the usual, "see you tomorrow, honey." Let's hope that tomorrow another location will be selected for their visit.

The Landreth Production Corporation Tuesday afternoon announced the purchase of several leases aggregating 160 acres in the general neighborhood of what has become known as the Landreth pool, near the old Noble area. The purchases were made from the W. T. Wagoner estate and from C. L. Sloan. The consideration was not announced.

The leases purchased will be known as HH, HJ, JJ. Lease HH consists of forty acres in the southwest quarter of section 42, block 4. With the purchase of this acreage, the Landreth Corporation of Breckenridge now has approximately 1800 acres in the Wilbarger fields. The corporation has ten producing wells on the various leases producing in the neighborhood of 1400 barrels. Since coming here in July, the Landreth Corporation has become one of the most active operators in this territory.

Negress Is Freed Of Murder Charge By Jury Tuesday

After deliberating almost two hours, a jury in district court Tuesday afternoon acquitted Idella Young, negress, of a charge of murder in connection with the killing of Lucy Watkins, negress, on June 4. The verdict was returned about 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

The offering of testimony was completed Tuesday morning, and the lawyers argued the case throughout most of the afternoon. Defense attorneys contended that the defendant killed in self defense. District Attorney J. A. Storey argued that murder had been committed, and asked for the supreme penalty.

Testimony brought out the fact that Idella Young fatally slashed the other negress in a fight on June 4. Lucy Watkins was said to have been wielding a long club at the time.

DEMOCRATIC PARTY HOLDS MAJORITIES IN VIRGINIA

Richmond, Va., Nov. 4.—(AP)—The democratic party retained by comfortable majorities its hold on all Virginia state offices in yesterday's state election.

Los Angeles, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Speaking before the city club last night, Congressman John Hill of Maryland, opponent of the 18th amendment, declared that the prohibition law would either be "repealed honestly or nullified dishonestly."

Hill arrived yesterday to begin a speaking tour of the Coast in the interest of modification of national prohibition laws.

Smith Returns.

Governor Al Smith Records Another Triumph at Polls With Election of Democratic Mayor For New York

New York, Nov. 4.—(AP)—Governor Al Smith has had another mighty triumph at the polls.

His protegee, State Senator James John Walker, who defeated Mayor Hylan for the democratic nomination in a bitter battle, was elected mayor of New York yesterday by an enormous plurality over Frank D. Waterman, republican, a manufacturer.

Complete returns show Walker was elected by a plurality of 401,581.

Four proposed amendments to the state constitution for which the governor stumped the state and which were opposed by the republican machine were approved by the voters.

This new proof of the political power of the governor is something of a vaudeville if he carries out his announced intentions. He has said he will return to private life when his term as governor expires a year from next January.

For four years beginning January 1 next, the chief executive of the country's largest city will be a Tammany product who arose much as the governor himself, from the sidewalks of New York.

A semi-pro baseball player, a song writer in New York's famous Tin Pan Alley, and a stage manager earlier in his career, Walker has been in the legislature for 16 years. He has been an active supporter of welfare legislation. He was sponsor of laws permitting boxing, Sunday movies and Sunday baseball. He is a lawyer 47 years old.

His defeat of Waterman came on the thirteenth anniversary of his wedding; and Mrs. Walker, who was a Chicago girl, formerly an actress, was prouder than ever of the display on her piano of her husband's musical masterpiece "Will You Love Me in December As in May."

Mrs. Waterman is glad that her husband lost. "If he had been elected it might have affected his health and it might have meant his life," she said.

Amendments Approved.

The amendments were approved as a result of the vote in New York City, off-setting that of the vote upstate against them. Two of them provide for bond issues for various public improvements and elimination of grade crossings. The others consolidate state offices and make minor changes in the judiciary.

The republican machine was particularly active against the bond issues.

District Attorney Joab H. Banton, democrat, was re-elected over Former Governor Charles S. Whitman, who had waged a vigorous campaign. Mr. Whitman was twice elected district attorney before he became mayor.

For the first time in the history of the city there will be a woman member of the aldermanic board. She is Mrs. Ruth Pratt, a society leader and welfare worker, who running on the republican ticket in the "silk stocking district" of the Upper East Side, defeated James A. O'Gorman, Jr., democrat, son of Former United States Senator O'Gorman.

KANSAS CITY ELECTS REPUBLICAN MAYOR

Kansas City, Nov. 4.—(AP)—With only two precincts missing from yesterday's municipal election returns, Albert I. Beach, republican incumbent, had apparently defeated Ben Jaudon, democrat, for mayor by about 500 votes. The same returns, however, indicate that the democrats would control the city council.

Four hundred and twenty precincts out of 426 gave Beach 57,204; Jaudon 56,710.

VALENTINO ASSERTS HE WILL NOT VISIT HIS WIFE

Hollywood, Calif., Nov. 4.—(AP)—Rudolph Valentino, noted lover of the screen, departed yesterday for New York and London after explaining that he was not going East to see his wife, the former Winifred Hudnut.

"She probably will have returned to New York from Paris by the time I am going to see her," Valentino, who recently announced he and Mrs. Valentino were enjoying a "marital vacation" said he planned to spend the Christmas in Italy, returning here early next year.

KLAN CANDIDATE LOSES DETROIT MAYOR'S RACE

Detroit, Nov. 4.—(AP)—The Ku Klux Klan was defeated in the mayoralty fight here yesterday. Mayor John W. Smith being re-elected over Charles Bowles by approximately 25,000 majority. A total of 520 precincts out of 583 this morning gave Smith 126,872; Bowles 100,406.

REPUBLICAN ELECTED MAYOR OF BOSTON

Boston, Nov. 4.—(AP)—For the first time in 18 years, democratic Boston has elected a republican mayor. Malcolm E. Nichols, who resigned as collector of internal revenue to enter the mayoralty race, yesterday defeated his nearest democratic rival, Theodore A. Glynn, city fire commissioner, by 22,100.

DEMOCRATS WIN SPECTACULAR RACES TUESDAY

New Jersey and Virginia Elect Democratic Governors and New York City Election Favors Al Smith's and Tammany Hall's Candidate at Polls.

(By Associated Press)

The democrats swept to victory yesterday in the New Jersey gubernatorial race and the New York City election.

In less spectacular contests, the republicans elected a mayor of Boston for the first time since 1907, won hands down in Pennsylvania state and municipal elections, regained control of the municipal machinery in a number of Indiana cities and apparently had elected a mayor of Louisville, Ky.

In the only two congressional contests each party held its own, the republicans retaining control of the third New Jersey district, and the democrats retaining successful in the third Kentucky district.

Virginia, the only state besides New Jersey to elect a governor, voted a straight democratic slate into office, John M. Purcell winning out for state treasurer over John B. Bassett, republican, in a contest that attracted more than usual attention because of Purcell's affiliation with the Catholic church was brought into the campaign.

The Ku Klux Klan became the chief issue in the non-partisan mayoralty election in Detroit with Mayor John W. Smith, apparently victor over Charles Bowles, the Klan supported candidate.

Prohibition was the out-and-out issue in the New Jersey gubernatorial race, but in the victory of A. Harry Moore, democrat over State Senator Arthur Whitney, who had the support of the anti-saloon league, the democrats pointing to the overturning of the 370,000 plurality given President Coolidge last year.

While Moore rolled up a plurality of approximately 40,000, largely through the heavy vote cast for him in his home county of Hudson, the victory was not as sweeping as some democratic leaders had predicted, the forecast running as high as 100,000.

Overwhelming Majority.

The democratic victory in New York City was overwhelming. State Senator James J. Walker defeated Frank D. Waterman by approximately 380,000 votes, out of a total of slightly more than 1,000,000 cast. With Walker, the democrats elected all five borough presidents, a president of the board of aldermen, comptroller, all four district attorneys and a long list of lesser officials.

With ten candidates—seven democrats and three republicans—running in Boston's nominally non-partisan election, Malcolm Nichols, republican, was elected mayor of that city. The main democratic vote was divided between Theodore A. Glynn, who had the backing of Mayor Curley and Joseph H. O'Neil, sponsored by former Mayor John F. Fitzgerald.

Stewart Appleby, son of the late Representative-Elect T. Frank Appleby, was elected to congress from the third New Jersey district over J. Lyle Kinmouth, democrat.

In the third Kentucky district, long represented by the late Robert Y. Thomas, veteran democrat, John A. Moore, democrat, apparently had been returned a winner over Thurman B. Dixon, republican.

INDIANA REPUBLICANS WIN MAYORALTY RACES

Indianapolis, Nov. 4.—(AP)—Republicans made heavy inroads into the democratic strength in municipalities throughout Indiana in yesterday's election. Besides retaining control of the city government in Indianapolis, the republicans captured the mayoralty offices from the democrats at Fort Wayne, Evansville and Lafayette, the latter city having been under democratic regime for 20 years.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE CHIEF COUNSEL ISSUES SHARP NOTE OF WARNING.

Washington, Nov. 4.—(AP)—A sharp note of warning and a ban of congratulation for the accomplishment in prohibition enforcement down to this time are sounded in a report by Wayne B. Wheeler, chief counsel, for presentation tomorrow at the opening of the biennial convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America at Chicago.

With forty national wet organizations in holding against the prohibition amendment, Mr. Wheeler declares there must be eternal vigilance by the dry forces. Already there has been challenging opposition, he says, but adds that in the face of the fight the prohibition forces have moved unflinchingly.

East Bridgewater, Mass., Nov. 4.—(AP)—Thomas F. Moran, an aged farmer of this town, was shot and almost instantly killed Tuesday by James F. Parker, a ward of the children's aid society, who was employed at the farm. Parker fled after the shooting but later gave himself up to the Brockton police. He is 16 years old.

Moran is said to have taken the boy to task for remaining out late last night and then ordered him to saw some wood. Parker refused. The shooting followed.

Allege Slugging, Shooting and Repeaters Caused Republicans' Victory in Kentucky Tuesday

Louisville, Nov. 4.—(AP)—The Courier-Journal today says that "slugging, shooting and alleged use of repeaters" attended the return of the republicans to power in Louisville yesterday with the election of A. A. Will as mayor over Joseph T. O'Neal, democrat, while dispatches from eastern Kentucky told of three dead and several wounded in election day shootings.

John J. Davis, chairman of the democratic campaign committee, declared that the election of Will would be contested on grounds of fraud.

The vote from 664 of the 700 precincts was: Will 55,337; O'Neal 53,166.

In view of O'Neal's short campaign began when W. T. Baker withdrew in his favor Sunday, the democratic nominee is declared to have run surprisingly well. Baker in withdrawing admitted having been connected with the Ku Klux Klan. O'Neal's name was pasted on the ballot. He is a former judge of the state court of appeals.

One hundred and fifteen negroes, democrats charge, were driven in automobiles from polling place to polling place by the republicans for the purpose of repeating. Slugging of a democratic election worker by republicans, also, is charged.

William Gilbert and a man named Maples are reported dead in an election duel at High Splint, 18 miles from Harlan, Ky., while Bob Cole of Poor Fork is reported to have shot and killed Bob Davidson on Line Fork in another battle. Bloodshed at Whitesburg is also reported.

On the face of unofficial returns, says the Courier-Journal today, democrats retained control in the house of the general assembly in yesterday's election by about the same majority as before, having won about 62 of the 100 seats.

WICHITA FALLS AND ELECTRA WILL PROTEST ELIGIBILITY OF ROBINSON AND TED KEY

Vernon, Wichita Falls, and Electra may play another series of football games to decide the class A champions of the eastern end of district 1 of the interscholastic league, according to a prediction made here Wednesday morning by the Coyote Coach, Bud McCallum, just before leaving for Austin where he will represent S. H. Rider, principal of Wichita Falls High School and enter protests of the eligibility of certain Vernon and Electra players before an executive meeting of the league at Austin Thursday.

Coach McCallum stated that he will protest the eligibility of H. Robinson on the grounds that he has participated in high school athletics four years prior to this season.

B. M. Dinsmore, superintendent of the Electra High School, filed a protest against the eligibility of Ted Key, Lion end, with the league three days ago and this matter will, also, be acted upon Thursday. Mr. Dinsmore protests on the grounds that Key is a professional boxer.

Coach McCallum intimated that the eligibility of certain Electra players would be protested, and that it was almost certain that this team's season would be forfeited.

Rody Curtain of Wichita Falls was recently declared ineligible, and he was used in the Coyote-Tiger clash on October 17. If the executive council of the league grants the protests entered, all games played in this end of the district will be discounted, according to McCallum. The Electra-Wichita Falls game has already been declared forfeited to Electra by R. B. Henderson, secretary of the league, McCallum states. This action was taken after evidence was presented showing that Curtain, Wichita Falls back, was over 21 years old.

High school officials here state that they believe the executive council will refuse to take action on the protests. A representative of this school will be sent to Austin, it is announced.

If the protests are allowed, the championship of this end of the district will still offer a representative team in the state race, according to Coach McCallum's plan.

ARLISS BLAMES PUBLIC FOR STAGE PRODUCTIONS

New York, Nov. 4.—(AP)—If the stage is going to the dogs, and according to existing records it has been going that way for at least 200 years, blame it on George Arliss, the actor, who says that the only people who can be blamed for the failure of the public are the actor and the manager.

The public is most generally blamed, said Mr. Arliss. Whenever any particularly inane play is produced, the students of the drama are apt to raise their high brows and say, "This is the sort of thing the public wants nowadays."

"When anything unusually vicious attracts attention, we hear, 'This is what the public demands,' Mr. Arliss said. 'The poor long-suffering public! How can they demand any specific entertainment? If any one of the public knew what to demand, he could become a theatrical manager and make a fortune. It would mean that he knew the public taste.'

"The public does not know what to demand any more than I do. I have had a good deal of experience, but when an author me what kind of play I want, I have to confess that I do not know. I want a good play, that is all I can say. And that is what the public is continually saying. It wants the best that we can give it."

FORT WORTH NEGRO BANK

Fort Worth, Nov. 4.—(AP)—Two negro robbers held up the private bank of William McDonald, well known Texas negro politician, here today, taking several hundred dollars. The negro section, where the bank is located, was thrown into excitement by the robbery and a chase of the bandits by Sterling Woods, negro bootblack. Woods rushed from his shine parlor with a revolver when he heard the commotion in the bank. He caught one of the robbers as he was fleeing down the side walk. The other escaped with the entire loot.

The men walked into the bank and began talking to the cashier, Harry Minnick, regarding a check they desired to cash. After being told they would have to furnish identification, they held a whispered conference and then suddenly jerked out guns, commanded "Hands Up!" They went behind the cage and took the money in the cash drawer, overlooking several hundred dollars on the counter.

GIRL OF 18 TAKES FOURTH HUBBY
"I'LL BEAT DE WOLF HOOPER'S RECORD," SAYS GAY TEXAN

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 4.—She's only 18 years old—She has been married four times and divorced three times—She's now starting in on her fourth husband, and she vows that before they lay her among the daisies she'll set a world's record as a matrimonial quick-change artist.

She started in life as Pauline Nixon, out in the great open spaces of Texas where men are plentiful as well as chivalrous.

Pauline hardly got a square deal in life, at that. When she was 14 she had gotten enough of cards from the bottom of the deck to make many an older person throw the whole hand into the discard and call for a new deal.

To begin with, her father and mother were at odds. Each one wanted the sole custody of Pauline. Once the father kidnapped her and immured her in a convent for three years. Then, motoring in the desert, he ran afoul of bandits and was shot to death. This ended the family row, but not Pauline's troubles.

Craved Pleasure
The girl had grown up fast, amid such fast-moving home surroundings, and at the age of 13 she became filled with a craving for life—life with its pleasures and gaieties that the older people seemed able to take, but that always were denied her.

So she dropped out of high school abruptly and married a young man named Austin P. Carlton. This at Las Cruces, N. M., in June 1922.

The marriage went on the rocks after nearly two years and Carlton left her. She was granted a divorce.

The girl's acquaintances began to poke fun at her.

"Married and divorced at 16—where'll you end up?" they taunted her.

And that gave her the idea. "I boasted, in jest, that I'd break De Wolf Hooper's marriage record," she says. "Then I got to thinking it over and decided I'd go ahead and do it."

A Very Canny Lass.

Now observe the cunningness that can descend upon a girl of 16.

Twenty-four days after her first divorce she remarried, this time a Cisco druggist by name of Lelie B. Stagner. Under the law she should have waited a year after the divorce decree. She didn't. Consequently, when she and Stagner tired of one another, four months later, she didn't have to work hard for a divorce. All she did was get an annulment, on the ground that the marriage was illegal in the first place.

A couple of weeks later the girl went to Las Cruces, N. M., with another boy friend, one W. B. Winzinead, to attend the wedding of a pair.

"AS NO MAN HAS LOVED" AT PICTORIUM THEATER

Once in awhile an author turns out a piece of writing that is really inspired. Some sixty-two years ago Edward Everett Hale, author, minister and editor, wrote the story which, as he explained, was "forged in the fire." It was written at the time when a nation was being tested in the crucible of civil war. This story, "The Man without a Country," has thrilled the people of the earth in every language. It has become an international classic.

Once in a while a motion picture director turns out a film drama that really inspires. In the World War a young man, whose ancestors came to America in 1632, went to France with the American Expeditionary Forces. He fought on five fronts, and on the Somme he fell wounded. It was in this terrible conflict that his patriotism named highest. From these experiences came the inspiration which enabled him to make such a stirring creation for the motion picture screen from Hale's soul gripping theme. This director is Rowland V. Lee, who has given to the world "As No Man Has Loved," one of the most inspirational dramas that has come to the screen and is here Wednesday and Thursday at the Pictorium.

In the part of Kate O'Hara, the witty Irish milliner who foils the gambler-villain and saves her spendthrift sweetheart from himself, Claire Adams who plays the leading female role in the William Fox production, "The Wheel," adapted from John Golden's stage success, which is coming to the Pictorium for Friday, scores one of the triumphs of her brilliant career. Before adopting motion pictures as her profession, Miss Adams was a concert singer. She is keenly interested in athletics.

"TROUBLE WITH WIVES" ON THURSDAY AT THE VERNON

A comedy of married life that scintillates with newness, a human story that treats the marital situation and its hectic sequences from a laugh angle.

That's what one finds in "The Trouble With Wives" at the Vernon Theatre Thursday. Its original screen story by Sada Cowan and Howard Higgin. Malcolm St. Clair, who made "Are Parents People?" as his first Paramount picture, directed. A couple of eye-filling sequences, include scenes in Moore's ultra-fashionable bootery, with twelve pretty models displaying the latest thing in footwear on shapely ankles, and episodes on the beach at Catalina Island with fifty of Hindom's neatest little mermaids.

There's a strong cast playing in support of the principals.

"Son of His Father," by Harold Bell Wright is playing to a crowded house. The picture started Monday for a three-day run, and is closing the engagement, tonight.

BUSINESS HALTED FOR DETECTIVE'S FUNERAL

Muskegon, Mich., Nov. 4.—(AP)—Muskegon forgot George (Dutch) Anderson today while it buried Detective Charles Hammond.

In the Central Methodist Church, not 200 feet from the spot where Hammond cornered the notorious Anderson Saturday night and shot him dead, funeral services were held today. More than 10,000 persons are estimated to have passed by the Hammond bier since the body lay in state.

Anderson, who scaled the walls of the Atlanta federal penitentiary, lies unguarded, at another end of the city. The police department has wired the warden of the penitentiary that it is ready to turn over to him the body of the man for whose capture the warden had offered a $500 reward. Pending word from Atlanta the authorities are uncertain what disposition will be made of the body of this gunman and pal of Gerald Chapman, the super criminal.

Secret service operatives who are here believe the body may be claimed by some attorney or woman.

"No member of Anderson's gang ever went to the Potter's Field," George Tate, secret service man of Toledo, Ohio, said.

Business was halted this afternoon during the hour of Detective Hammond's funeral.

SUPREME COURT GETS BOUNDARY DISPUTE BRIEF

Washington, Nov. 4.—(AP)—The government filed in the supreme court today its brief in the boundary dispute between Texas and Oklahoma over the location of the 100th Meridian.

It is insisted the present line located by Jones, Brown and Clark had been established as the correct boundary and had been so recognized by the supreme court in the Greer county case. The government pointed out that public lands located in the strip under controversy had been disposed of on the assumption that the present line was the correct boundary.

GRAHAM BROTHERS SHOW
BIG PRODUCTION INCREASE

Graham Brothers production of motor trucks for the single month of September, 1925, according to official figures, was 171 per cent of their production for the entire year of 1924.

With the combined output of their four large factories located at Detroit, Evansville, Stockton, California, and Toronto, Ontario, Graham Brothers, Inc., a division of Dodge Brothers, Inc., and now the largest exclusive manufacturers of motor trucks, are shattering all their previous production records.

Graham Brothers production for the first 9 months of this year exceeded that for 1924 by 128 per cent and exceeded the 1923 figures by 248 per cent.

"This progress is not surprising to owners of Graham Brothers trucks," says Mr. Hendrix, of the McFall Brothers, local Dodge Brothers dealer, "because they know the satisfactory service these trucks give, and appreciate their unusually low cost of operation."

FRISCO DISAPPROVES PROPOSED POWER SALE

San Francisco, Nov. 4—(AP)—In electing nine supervisors of the "minority group" ticket at the municipal election here yesterday, San Francisco voted disapproval of the sale of hydro-electric power from its Hetch Hetchy Municipal project to a private corporation for distribution in the city.

Of the thirteen officers elected only one present office holder, the city recorder, was re-elected.

The initiative to purchase for $36,000,000 the Market Street Railway was defeated 8 to 1.

By a small majority the proposition to remove non-Catholic cemeteries outside the city limits was defeated.

But the heavier team could never force the Vernon club back over that last white line. Both teams tried for a goal from the field, but failed.
